Books Zivic

Tech Outlook Appears Brighter Than Dark Picture Painted by Coach Wondrack

From the

PRESS BOX Other Tried Talent Garms Best N. L. Hitter, In Squad of 69

But Won't Get Credit By JOHN LARDNER.

Special Correspondent of The Star. NEW YORK, Sept. 11 (N.A.N.A.). -If you like to watch the National League batting race as she stands in the papers today, all right. Dixie Walker, Frank McCormick, Stan Hack, Alabama Rowell, John Mizethey ar "ery close and very inter-but for a technicality, blow the whole classification to pieces and make mincemeat of the first five. Why keep it a secret? tional League is a sober, brownhaired little Texan that nobody ever it. He leads by 70 points.

Garms Hitting Steadily, Has .388 Average

The batting race you've been read- | the Indian sign on us." ing about for the last month is a tight and thrilling scramble that stands about like this:

Walker-.319. Hack-.319. McCormick-.318 Mize-.316. Rowell-.315.

So what would you say to a fellow boy coaches fits.

Garms has played in 81 games for the pre-season outlook. the Pittsburgh Pirates this year, and paddling that ball, nothing short of sudden death is going to keep him it true at other schools. out of those 25 games.

It's a full performance, too, not fust an inning here and an inning there. One hundred and four hits. Sixty-six runs. Forty-six runs batted. By the season's end he'll have 350 times at bat.

Technicality Keeps Title From Pirate Slugger

sometimes sneaks into 100 or more rest have only three or four. league games with only about 150 times at bat to show for it, they hitter. He is a full-time hitter who got started just a shade too late. Two weeks sooner—perhaps even 10 days-in the line-up and Debs would be your official champion. He's the champion anyway for this department's money. We will send him a plaque if he wants it. Seventy points is too much differ-Garms has practically as many hits now as Bill Nicholson, Hank Leiber and Ernie Lombardi, all of whom will qualify as "full-

You've never heard much about Garms. This is the first year that his usefulness has shown in the McGhee, Dell, Walsh, Hollidge and figures. But in Boston for several seasons they considered him one of the most useful outfielders in the business and in Pittsburgh today its own division it plays Eastern and Joe DiMisa, Sam Benson, Bob Mil-Frank Frisch finds him more than useful at third base.

Handiest Ball Player

Frisch Ever Had

He got his first name from the great Eugene V. Debs. That was 32 years ago, in the thriving hamlet of Bangs, Tex. At Howard Payne College, in Brownwood, he played football, basket ball and baseball and in between ball games he was a sprinter on the track team.

Fast—he gets many a leg hit and steals many a base. Fine arm-he Federal Security Chess Club lecture once started two double-plays in a recently were Divanites Norval Wigsingle game from left field. Sharp ginton, Leonard Minkoff and Ernest eves—the National League pitchers Knapp. can't get him out any more.

He broke in with Abilene, in West | number of important chess openings The St. Louis Browns especially that applicable to the White. brought him up in 1932 and later king's pawn. farmed him out to San Antonio, where the Bees picked him up. Frisch watched the Bees as a radio broadcaster all last year and one of his first moves when he returned to the big time as manager of Pittsburgh was to lay his hooks on "One of the handlest ball players I ever had," says Francis. "He's the league's best hitter, and don't in the eight-club tournament that That's what he is for me, too, and commences September 15. Capital for any one who can hear himself City, Divan, Federal Trade, Federal Security, Interhigh Chess Associaaway from anad ding machinetion. Paul Morphy, Archives and the champion batter of the National League for the season of 1940.

Sports Program For Local Fans

Baseball.

Washington at Chicago, 3.

Federal Employes' Tournament,

Potomac Park, 3:30. Barney Welsh vs. C. Alphonso championship match, Recreation Department tournament. Rock Creek courts, 3:30. TOMORROW.

Washington at St. Louis, 4. Tennis.

Potomac Park, 3:30. Wrestling Turner's Arena, 8:30.

Potomac Park, 3:30.

Potomac Park, 3:30.

Regatta, off Hains Point, 10.

Luck Not Good in Draw, As Team Must Meet Four Tough Foes

By GEORGE HUBER.

they are the ones that show in the Tech High School football coach, first five, and very close together almost are insurmountable.

But plodding along out of sight candidates to be sure, but how fast beneath them is a fellow who could, they are is the question. Most of are sophomores and juniors with limited grid knowledge. Many of If the official statisticians won't the good players developed by him reveal it, your correspondent will. or Rusty Thompson, his predeces-The true hitting leader of the Na- sor, either have left school or have shifted to some other institution.

To top excrything, there's Anaspeaks of, by the name of Debs C. costia, arising as a power in the Garms. Is it close? Well, that is eastern division. "Tech fears Ananot exactly the way I would describe costia," says Wondrack. "Put that in the paper. That Lund (Rolland Lund, Anacostia coach) has beaten us two years in a row and I still don't see how he did it. They have to the note of pessimism at Tech. yards, but in scoring the first two In addition to playing football Hap Hardell, who coached the Tech touchdowns against Northwestern he was a guard on the basket ball gridders some years back, annually last year, when the Wildcats were team, a decathlon man in track would tell a pre-season tale of woe. Then he usually came up with a homa's final margin was 23-0. strong outfit that gave other school-

Just Same Old Story.

It's almost official. They used to for Hardell and it may be that it a brain concussion. ask a man to play 100 games in was under him that he picked up order to qualify for a championship. the business of viewing with alarm

Certainly the Tech team is missthe Pirates have 25 games left to ing on several cylinders in its drills. play. The way the gentleman is Occasional plays are messed up, signals are forgotten and the boys a scourge, plague, arson, flood or stumble over each other. But that

Comparing it to other public high teams which began their practices last week. Tech rates very favorably. Wondrack through his gloom men around which to build his 1940 team. We spotted four with no trouble on the practice field. Jack Vernon Dodge, end, and Ed Jennan occasional pinch-hitter, who seven and Anacostia six, but the Columbus League gets off to its 32d

Has Numbers and Size. give Tech its best team in several

In addition to his letter men. perienced players in Vernon Hol- promised in the District League. lidge, back: Buddy Hightman tackle, and Carleton Smallwood, another back. All have developed nicely since practice started a week team, which invades Lucky Strike. ago and in fact things have progressed so much that Wondrack is Guethler are the howitzers of the able to name a tentative first eleven. latter outfit. Bill Miller, John Cha-Smallwood. One break going against Tech is and Irwin Simon.

George Chernowitz dis-

the theories underlying a

Harry Siller and Milton Paul drew in their match, the outcome of which will decide who is the best secondboarder in Federal Security ladder play. Dr. Carl Farman drew against

Chernowitz while Murry Brimberg and S. B. Solot also tied. Walter Perkins adjourned his game with Keen interest is being manifested

Maritime Commission — all are polishing up their active member-

Anent Mr. Morphy.

That Irish fighter Murphy was good. Of course, when he left his native heath and migrated to France.

to Portugal, to New Orleans, he carried hero blood in his veins.

Somewhere along the way he changed his name to Morphy and when he had a son born to him in

New Orleans he christened the

This infant grew into manhood and at the very threshold astounded

the world with his prodigious chess ability. Sufficeth that he became the recognized de facto world champion ere he was 21. Then came the reaction; the flight from fame, the psychological complexes, and finally

Chess players continue to speculate on the genius of Paul Morphy. In the August issue of British Chess Magazine one J. Mieses indulges in oblivion after a meteoric career

infant Paul Charles Morphy.

Jacob Perla.

Four Letter Gridmen, Redskins See 'Another Battles' Go With Furr Peeves, Sailing Entries So Numerous In Seymour, Handsome Rook

(Redskin Rookies-No. 2.)

Unaware of the fact that he's been stamped "another Cliff Battles," here's another instance of the Redskins' current crop of remarkably modest rookies. And while advising Washington girls that he's probably the most handsome rookie on the squad, with a million-dollar smile According to his own testimony, and personality to match, we'd betthe problems facing Art. Wondrack, ter warn them that he's happily married.

Born in Wyandotte, Okla., Seymour played high school football in He has his share of big gridiron the little mining town of Commerce, up in the northeastern corner of the State. There he met and developed quite a friendship with the men coming out for the team Wayne Chambers and Charley Chestnut, two of Jim Pixlee's first George Washington eleven. In fact, Seymour seriously considered coming to G. W. before deciding to stick to his home State's university.

Starting out as a center in high school. Seymour shifted to tackle and end before transferring to the backfield because of a shortage of ball carriers. But he's remained

There's a strangely familiar ring ference in ground gaining with 694 but never was initiated. favored to beat his Sooners. Okla- and—as a warning to all National mour's value to the team was the Oklahoma in the same league who is hitting But Hardell, with all his gloom, fact that the only two games it 388? I think you would have to call was an optomist compared to Wond- lost last year were the final pair Redskins was demonstrated by the rock. Artie used to coach the line when he was in the hospital with effective role he played in their de-Plans to return to his alma mater Boston last night.

behind the line ever since, capping in February to complete 18 semester within the prescribed 90-day period. his college career by being named hours of work for his B. S. degree | He had signed for the bout with all-Big Six Conference fullback last in physical education. Received a Phil Furr scheduled September 23 coaching offer for this fall, turning at Griffith Stadium, but that failed His biggest thrill came, not as a it down to join the Redskins, but to appease the association. Furr member of Oklahoma's undefeated wants to coach as his life's profesteam of '38 when he led the con- sion. Pledged Sigma Nu Fraternity,

League opponents this year-was Probably the best tipoff on Sey- heavyweight boxing champion at

Seymour's potential worth to the feat of the Eastern All-Stars at

District and K. of C. Pin Loops, Two of Oldest Here, Start Another Season Tonight

While the curtain rises tonight | George, Siggy Solem and Abe Weincould see only two returning letter on major league bowling when the berg. Men's District League ushers in its ing champion Rosslyn team with 35th season at six of the city's vari- Galt Davis and Karl Gochenour Walsh and Bill Dellastatious, backs; ous maple plants, a hardly less tangles at Brookland with a young notable occasion will be the opening team led by Leonard Smith, a rookie That's where the technicality ings, tackle. That's about the av- of another of Washington's oldest comes in. Owing to the revages of erage at other schools. Western has duckpin loops as the Knights of season at Tad Howard's Rendezvous. State Deupty A. A. McGarraghy Sixty-nine candidates are drilling | will roll the first ball to start the have set up a new standard in the daily at Tech Stadium and they firing in the 12-club Casey loop at Bureau of Statistics—400 times at compare in both size and number 7:30. Again serving as officers are bat is the minimum, not 100 games. with the best schoolboy outfits Ted Moseley, president; Martin A. And that makes it rough on around town. A few breaks here Brown, vice president, and Silvo H.

Increased to 12 teams and with the stars scattered over the entire circuit, the keenest competition in Wondrack has a number of ex- the history of the all-star loop is the interhigh schedule it drew. In Georgetown Recreation's line-up of Anacostia as a matter of course, but ler. Monk Walker and Pinky Bradt from the western loop it has drawn will be hosts to Eddie Espey and his the two toughies, Western and Cen- gang of Penn Recreation shooters magnitude for decades?

Ace Pair With Lafayette. Astor Clarke and Joe Harrison are the topnotchers of the Lafayette Hokie Smith and Fred "Bub" In the usual order, starting with ney, Lindsey Stott and Bob Miciotto left end, it is Dodge. Lewis, Fior- are members of a well-balanced endon to take on Lou Jenkins, Gene Hargett, Joe Freschi, Abe Beavers Wootton. The affair starts at 7

BIRD'S OPENING.

Black. White.

Played in the 1940 New York State chess championship. Santasiere annotates games for the American Chess Bulletin, which comes off the press soon after a lapse of two months, according to Editor Hermann Helms.

Helms.
Wilson E. Sweeney correctly named the opening in September 1 column and is awarded a chess magazine. Allen A. Jenkins receives a similar award for his accuracy.

Black. White.

White.

Black.

Led by Bill Krauss, the defendlast season, who made good in a big way. Ernie Burkhalter, the Southeast youngster, who is dubbed a diamond in the rough, will be in the Brookland line-up.

Hall Has its Big Three. Tony Santini, Ed Blakeney and Julie Singer compose the big three of the Convention Hall team which encounters Hyattsville at the hall.

Perce Wolfe and Harry Hilliard are the suburban mainstays. The ever-steady Jack Talbert and Al Wright will head the formidable Chevy Chase aggregation which battles Arcadia at Chevy Chase. Manager Monk Fraser has named Ollie Pacini, George Demeres, Eddie Keith, Fred Murphy, Mike Avon and Paul Harrison to carry the banner for Arcadia. All matches are at An all-star girls' doubles match will feature the christening of the moni, Newsome, Jennings, Reordan, King Pin club which treks to Clar- raine Gulli and Caroline Hiser will clash with Lucy Rose and Blanche Charlie Myers with set of 392 and Boswell with top game of 162 shone in the opening of the 12-club Building Supply League at Rosslyn. The which will include Joe Pricci, Doug former paced a 3-0 win for the Hudsons over A. P. Woodson while the latter led the Cement Salesmen's sweep over Johnson's Air Condition-Defending Champion A. L. Kelley & Son got off on the wrong foot in the 20-club Rosslyn Independent League starter as Joe Freschi supplied the fireworks with 164-420 to give Arlington Trust a 2-1 decision. Among the visitors attending the Lasker was invincible. William Steinitz also remained undefeated Despite Chick Hollidge's 390 the for a generation. Is it better to sky-Frank Segretis dropped a 2-1 verdict rocket to fame and burn one's torch decision. Despite Chick Hollidge's brilliantly or radiate light of lesser 390 the Frank Segretis dropped a 2-1 verdict to Manning's Service. Shaffer Flower was led to a 2-1 win son's 385. Bill Krauss and Sid Kebler with 377's shared honors as over Capital Transit by "Nellie" Nel-

Black. White. Santasiere. Hago. Santasiere. 4 P-Q4 30 P-R4 B3 Kt-KB3 31 P-B5 P-KK13 32 K-B4 R(Kt6)-Kt5 P-KK13 32 K-B4 R(Kt6)-Kt5 P-B4 35 R-K2 P-B4 35 R-K2 P-B4 35 R-K2 P-B4 35 R-K2 P-Q5 37 PXP-P P-Q5 37 PXP-P P-Q8 39 K-Kt4 P-Q8 41 K-K2 P-Q8 41 K-K2 R-K16 P-Q6 44 R-Q2 R-Q4 2 R-Q5 EXIKEP 43 R-Q EXIKEP 45 R-Q EXIKEP 45 R-Q EXIKEP 46 R-C9 R(R6)-R5 B-K3 48 K-B3 BX 49 K-B4-CR RXB EXIKEP 88 R-R6 RXB EXIKEP 88 K-R6 RXB EXIKEP 88 R-R6 EXIKEP 88 R-R6 EXIKEP 54 K-B3 EXIKEP 88 R-R6 EXIKEP 88 R-R District Sand & Gravel took the odd one from Quality Shop. Ford Retains Ringer Title in Great Uphill Battle With Ellis

Holsey Ford today still was Metropolitan District champion of the colored section of The Star's annual grip that Holsey held on the title for the last two years appeared loos-

In the final of the tournamen last night on the Commerce Building Courts it seemed he would lose of Columbia champion, won the first three games. It was the first time in three years that Ford had lost a championship skirmish.

But he rebounded with a vengeance, announcing at the end of the third game that he would win the next four, which he proceeded to do by scores of 50-41, 50-38 50-29 and, to make it decisive

It was a brilliantly pitched match almost throughout, with Ellis at times hitting a pace of nearly 70 per cent ringers and Ford going even a bit better. With all the chips down in the final game, the champ struck his peak, slamming on 73

FRIDAY.

Baseball.

Washington at St. Louis, 4.

Tennis.

Federal Employes' Tournament, Potomac Park, 3:30.

Washington at St. Louis, 4.

Tennis.

Washington at St. Louis, 4.

Tennis.

Saturday.

Baseball.

Washington at St. Louis, 4.

Tennis.

Federal Employes' Tournament, Potomac Park, 3:30.

Regatta.

Sailing races, President's Cup Regatta, off Hains Point, 10.

Magazine one J. Mieses indulges in reminiscences. About 1903 he visited the visited the visited the United States on a chess tour and at the New Orleans Chess Club met Charles Andree Maurian, an interior of the late Paul Morphy. Maurian told of Morphy's greatness and Mieses learned that both Anderssen and Louis Paulsen Considered Morphy the strongest of all masters that they had met over the board. Modern masters, Rubinstein and Maroczy, have made a special study of Morphy's games. Their verdict is: Paul Morphy is the strongest chess player who ever lived.

Sailing races, President's Cup Regatta, off Hains Point, 10.

Magazine one J. Mieses indulges in reminiscences. About 1903 he visited the visited the visited the visited the United States on a chess tour and at the New Orleans Chess Club made at the New Orleans Chess Club made at the New Orleans Chess Club made at the New Orleans Chess Club mat the New Orleans Chess Club made the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. brilliantly seed in the New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. The New York Chess Association's 1940 congress. The New York Chess Associat

Though Armstrong

Gotham Leaders Resent Champ Appearing Here Prior to N. Y. Scrap

Buzzsaw Henry Armstrong still is welterweight champion of the world, in the National Boxing Association's opinion, and the sigh of relief from corpulent Eddie Mead, his business ings to be hoisted. Henry was okayed by the association in Milwaukee last night trophies. when it handed out its quarterly ratings. Under the new system challengers for his or any other title were not designated by number, but simply grouped under the heading of "outstanding contend-Mead's sigh of relief is genuine, for his meal ticket was about to be marked invalid by the N. B. A. for failure to sign for a bout with a legitimate welterweight contender wasn't ranked, it pointed out. Mead Rushes Signature.

So Mead grabbed the nearest pen and put his John Henry on articles for another championship joust, this time with Fritzie Zivic of Pittsburgh. It was-and still is-to be staged in New York, where Mead has 2,500 iron men posted with Mike Albee Mare Captures Jacobs guaranteeing that Henry's next titular appearance will be in the big town under Jacobs' ageis. All Mead has to do now is figure By the Associated Press.

out a way of appeasing Gen John (Lighthorse) Phelan, Mike Jacobs sation, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Reed and New York in general. Neither A. Albee, Larchmont, N. Y., won the Phelan nor Jacobs like the idea of mare division of the championship Armstrong boxing Furr in Washing- five-gaited stake at the Kentucky ton for the title-even though Hen- State Fair Horse Show last night. ry is a strong favorite-and taking on Zivic two weeks later. Certified along with Armstrong was second; Empress Delaine of

for another three months were champions in the following brackets: Delaine Farm, Morton Grove, Ill., Heavyweight - Joe Louis; light- third; Lady Jane of Pine Tree heavyweight, Billy Conn; middle- | Farms, McHenry, Ill., champion last weight, Tony Zale; lightweight, Angott; featherweight Petey Scalzo; bantamweight, George Pace: flyweight, Little Dado. Overlin Is a "Contender." Ken Overlin, currently making

Billy Soose, spidery Pennsylvanian who whipped both Overlin, New York's champion, and Zale, are rated "outstanding contenders." Milt Aron, held to a draw by Washington's Steve Mamakos Monday night, is rated a contender in the welterweight bracket, along with Louis Kid Cocoa and Izzy Jan-

Washington his headquarters, and George Abrams, Washington middleweight, is not listed. Outstanding contenders in the various divisions are as follows:

nazzo, both of whom appeared here

That Extra Event Is Added To President's Cup Meet

Sea scouts of the Corinthian | Those scouts not racing will act as Yacht Club have more craft than aides on the Coast Guard cutter boys to race them in the sailing Calypso, to be used as committee boat for the two days, while others events which opens the three-week will assist in serving contestants end President's Cup Regatta this a free lunch at the Corinthian Club Saturday and Sunday as officials Sunday between the second and announced eight boats will compete third races.

Frederick Tilp, skipper of the G. Tomalin, in charge of sail, that those on hand included Arthur agent, may cause hurricane warn- his boys will be represented in at Zucker's Gem, a comet from the for which The Star has donated N. J.; Fred Carlson's Puddles II, a under the local scouts.

As a direct result of these entries, regatta officials will add a twelfth McKnew's Frolic, another comet class to the originally scheduled 11. It will be for Class C yachts, boats 12 feet and under. Two other handicap groups are on the program opening Saturday at 1:30 p.m.-Class A for boats over 18 feet and Class B for yachts under 18.

Seeking More Sailors. While Tilp still was looking for ing Class A. Hardtack, a 16-foot catboat, will race in Class B.

Class C will find at least five sea scout entries. They are Sizzle. Kitten, Hoya I, Hoya II and Hoya III, all 10-foot sailing dinghies. The | mile triangular course of two laps. | Presidio of San Francisco. He had Georgetown University Sailing Club, Georgetown Channel, just off East

Lady Louise, owned by Harry J.

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION PLAYOFFS.

SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

Atlanta. 8: Memphis. 0. Nashville, 6: Chattanooga, 1

Columbus, 5: Augusta, 2. Greenville, 6: Savannah, 5. Macon, 12: Jacksonville, 6. Only games.

year, fourth.

Meanwhile entries continued to be received from racing centers all "ship," told Vice Chairman Paul along the East coast. Latest of least three of the twelve classes Raritan Yacht Club, Perth Amboy, fast 20-footer from Annapolis (Md.) Yacht Club, and 13-year-old Sonny from the Gibson Island (Md.) fleet. Miss McKnew is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. McKnew of this city and is rated one of the coming girl sailors in the class.

Capital Yacht Club Host. Capital Yacht Club, scene of the week-end races, will be opened Friday morning for the registration of additional scouts to man his large boats and the assignment of skip- a shootoff with the Springfield with fleet, he was certain of the 23-foot pers to local housing facilities. Both another perfect score to annex the catboats, Bobcat and Wildcat, enter- | Friday and Saturday will be open | Coast Guard Trophy, in which 36 house at the club. Following Sun- | tied for first place. day's last race, The Star trophies will be awarded skippers and crews. intervals, will be sailed over a 5last three have been loaned by The Calypso will be on station in

Lt. Col. Miller Leaves Kentucky Fair Title N. B. A. Presidency LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 11.-Sen-To Be Secretary

Special Dispatch to The Star.

Burkhart and Edward Barham of St. Louis, Mo., and Milan, Tenn., C., stepped down from the presiciation and into the office of execu-

> State Boxing Commission as president. Harry Landry of Louisiana was elected treasurer. Vice presidents chosen were Abe

Pat Comiskey. Bob Pastor. Tony Galento, Lee Savoid and Tommy Martin—the latter of England.
Lisht-heavyweights—Gus Lesnevich. Len
Harvey. Melio Bettlina and Jimmy Webb.
Middleweights—Ken Overlin. Billy Soose, Ceferino Garcia and Al Hostak.
Welterweights—Louis Kid Cocoa. Milt
Aron. Charley Burley. Pritizie Zivic, 1zzy Jannazzo and Mike Kaplan.
Lishtweights—Lew Jenkins. Lou Am-Greene, Paterson, N. J.; Jim Blake, Richmond, Va.; Edward Bonn, Denver, Colo., and Johnson Mattingly, Louisville, Kv. Fred Saddy of Milwaukee, Wis. was reappointed chairman of the

bers, Eric Boon, Davy Day, Pete Lello and Davy Castillous, Peatherweights—Harry Jeffra, Chalky Wright, Simon Chavez, Jimmy Perrin.

135-Pounders Seek Foes

Salice. Salice Patterson. Little Pancho, Philippines, and Enrico Urbanati.

'Italy.'

Hamilton and Jordon Have Perfect Cards In Rifle Contests

CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 11 .-United States Marines stationed at Washington, D. C., today had snatched a brace of coveted titles in the national rifle competition here, with Lt. Edwin L. Hamilton scoring a perfect 100 to win the Wimbledon

Marines From Capital

Take Two Titles in

National Shoot

Trophy, emblematic of the national long-range championship. Lt. Hamilton placed 24 shots in the small "V" ring in the center of the 5-point target to defeat several others who had scores of 100, but fewer in the smaller area. Leatherneck officer won over a field of 1,498 marksmen.

Sergt. Jordon Wins Shootoff. Sergt. William L. Jordon, also a marine stationed at Washington, won

The Farr Trophy, for marksmen using the service Springfield rifle in All events, starting at 5-minute 1,000-yard competition, went to Pvt. Doyle D. Swinkard, infantry, of the 100 with 14 in the "V" ring. The new Garand semi-automatic rifle failed to match the old Springfield bolt action gun in rapid fire matches. In the Scott Trophy match, 10 rapid fire shots prone at 300 yards with the Springfield, six competitors tied with perfect scores. Miss With Garand Rifle. Over the same course with the Garand, 16 shots instead of 10, three competitors tied for first with scores of 77, three points off a perfect pace. Other winners were:

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 11.—Lt. Col. Harvey L. Miller of Washington, D. C., stepped down from the presidency of the National Boxing Association and into the office of executive secretary as the association adjourned after its annual 3-day session.

Miller, who succeeds Ed Foster, one of the founders of the N. B. A., was elected on a slate headed by Joe Triner, chairman of the Illinois State Boxing Commission as presi-

Hodges, Bergman to Air Redskins' Contests

Russ Hodges, former Midwestern sports announcer and lately affiliated with Station WBT, Charlotte, N C., and Dutch Bergman, Catholic University athletic director and football coach, have been signed to broadcast all football games.

Hodges will handle the play-by-Wright, Simon Chavez, Jimmy Perrin, Bantamweights—Jimmy Brady and Kid Tanner, England: Tony Olivera and Lou wants games in or near the 135nishing sidelight comment and anplay assignment with Bergman furalysis between halves and after the

as "flavoripe." Arrow Beer is flavoripe, too . . . filtered and sealed at its sparkling flood-tide of flavor. Like the tomato-grower who watches his crop, the Arrow brewmaster patiently waits for Nature to work her miracle. Then, and not a minute before, Arrow Beer is ready to meet the most critical taste.

Put a few bottles of Arrow Beer in the ice-box. When the sun beats down. cool off with a delicious glassful. It's better, not bitter . . . smooth, not sweet. You can feel it hit the spot. Here is beer at its best. It's Arrow! It's flavoripe!

IT'S FLAVORIPE

1840, GLOBE BREWING CO., BALTO., MD.